

Training by the humanitarian sector, for the humanitarian sector.

This one-day workshop is an essential introduction for anyone interested in a career in the humanitarian sector. You will hear first hand from experienced relief workers returned from the field, learn about the nature of humanitarian relief, and look at the skills you have to bring to the sector.

Who should attend?

This course has been designed for anyone considering working in the humanitarian sector along with those who have a general interest in the field.

By the end of the course you will:

- Understand how the humanitarian sector operates
- Have questioned and learnt from experienced aid workers
- Know the best ways to make contact with key agencies
- Have identified the next steps in your career

One the day

Registration is from 0845 hrs with the workshop starting at 0930 hrs, the day will conclude at 1700 hrs.

Location RedR Training Centre, Vauxhall, London.

When RedR courses run regularly throughout the year. Please visit our website for specific dates.

Cost Prices are determined through a banding system and start from £100. For further details visit our website.

Book your place Booking details and full course information are available via:

@ www.redr.org.uk/training
e training@redr.org.uk
t +44 (0) 207 840 6000

Organisation bookings If you regularly book training for employees you will be eligible to join our discount scheme. For more information please visit our website or get in touch with our training team.

Tailormade training All of our training courses can be delivered on request in a location and time that best suits your organisation. In addition, we can provide tailored training to meet more specific learning needs. For more information please visit our website or email us via:

@ www.redr.org.uk/tailormade
e consultancy@redr.org.uk